We sell Heritage Range Cookers, which are a joy to use, for the discerning customer wanting the look of "Aga" but the flexibility of modern combustion systems, which can give fast responding heat, easily programmable cooking &/or with water heating for the smallest cottage to the manor House. We use the largest model in the range, the 4 oven Grande Duette inc hot water and 120,000 btu's central heating. Our oil consumption in the summer is around 1 litre a day !! that's 36 pence for hot water and cooking (on demand) compared with an "Aga" type burner which could be using a minimum of 6 litres a day and that's £2.16 !! and who wants to be roasting hot in the kitchen on a hot summers day ?

Not us, we have switch - ability - flex - ability - heating and cooking with economy, do you ?
